

Name: Whirling Dervish

Title: The Voyages of the Santa Francisca de Paola and Crew; Vengeance of the Eastern Wind

Power: Control Wind can bend the winds to his will

Weakness: Broad Strokes
no fine control of power

Quirk: Shining example of dignity and good grace but annoying about it

Traits:

Power Stunt: Spin of a Thousand Blades

able to create an impenetrable wall of steel from several swords

Power Stunt: The Dancing Scimitar

if he's only controlling a few, he can actually use the blades in combat

Power Stunt: Windshield

can block various airborne objects with wind

Power Stunt: Steal the Voice

by manipulating the winds, he can cause someone to become silent

Scholar

is fairly well read and studious

Warrior Poet

balances martial ways with contemplative reflection

Devout Muslim

The Forbidden Poetry of Abdul al Bandaras

The Kama Sutra meets Barry White

"Expert" quotation continually quotes different experts on various subjects. These experts may or may not be made up

Flaws:

Stubborn as a Camel

often gets set upon ways that might be more difficult than needed, or even completely wrong

Fear of Heights

because the winds are fickle, he fears that he won't be able to exert his will to not fall

Storypath Cards: